PREPARED FOR KJAYY · OCTOBER 23, 2026

01 · HOME

The first impression

The first thing visitors see: your headline, a quick summary, and your work front and centre.

- 3D photo ring. Your photos spin slowly in a ring. Visitors can drag it to explore or pause it.
- 5-star review under the ring rotates through client quotes.
- Quick stats: 5.0 client rating, 48-hour sneak peeks, sessions from $50.
- Orange ribbon scrolls through what you shoot: weddings, couples, families, editorial, brands, portraits.
- Header turns black as you scroll, and the menu highlights the section you are in.

A little bit of everything

A clean gallery of 16 of your photos, so your work does the talking.

- Filter buttons for Portraits, Weddings, Couples, Families, and Editorial.
- Tap any photo to open it full size, with arrows to flip through the rest.
- Each photo has a short title and its category underneath.
- Photos load fast and stay sharp on phones and big screens.

Sessions made for you

The heading reveals word by word as you scroll, with a camera drifting in the background.

- The Mini, $50: 30–45 min, 1 outfit, 1 location, 5 edited photos.
- The Signature, $150 (highlighted): 45–60 min, 2 outfits, 1 location, 10 edited photos.
- The Creative Experience, from $200: 60–90 min, 3 outfits, up to 2 locations, 15–20 edited photos, plus creative direction and concept planning.
- Each card's button takes people straight to booking with that session already picked.

Reserve your date in minutes

Clients pick a session, a date, and a time, then pay a deposit, all in one place.

- Session cards with your photos; the chosen one comes to life in colour.
- Calendar shows open and booked days. Times include a golden hour slot.
- Booking summary updates as they choose and shows the 50% deposit due today.
- Note: this shows how booking would look and feel. Taking real bookings and payments would connect to a booking service you choose.

The creative behind the lens

Your story, your photo, and a few playful touches that match your energy.

- Viewfinder frame around your photo, with a blinking REC light and camera settings.
- Spinning badge: Photographer · Creative menace · Storyteller.
- Polaroids of your work drift as you scroll, plus a hand-drawn “that’s me!”.
- Your bio, a Book with Kjayy button, and links to your Instagram and TikTok.

Clients say it best

A curved, slowly rotating reel of your clients' photos.

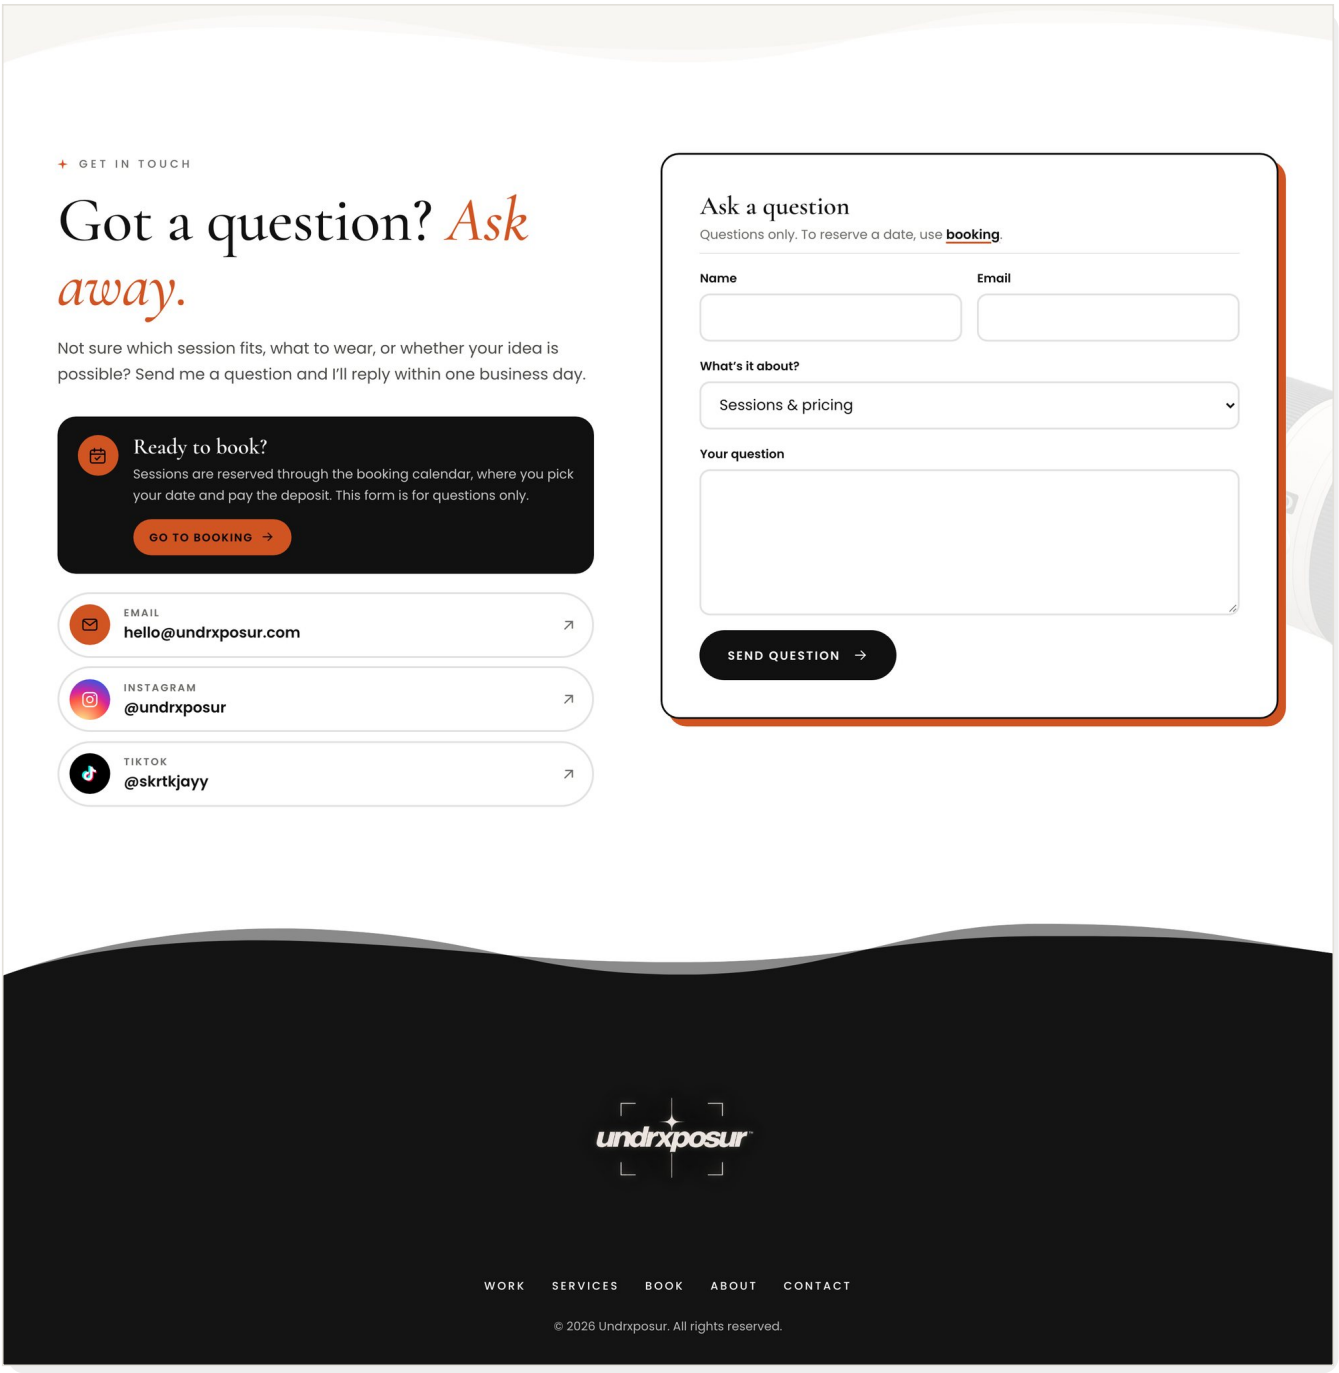

- The client in the centre is highlighted, and their quote appears below with their photo.
- Visitors can drag the reel, use the arrows, or pause it.
- Note: the quotes and names are samples to show the layout. Your real client reviews would go here.

Got a question? Ask away

A simple question form, kept separate from booking so inquiries stay organised.

- "Ready to book?" box points people to the booking calendar.
- Your email, Instagram (@undrxposur), and TikTok (@skrtkjayy), each with its icon.
- Question topics: pricing, availability, styling, weddings and events, or something else.
- Footer with your logo and quick links.

On your phone

Everything stacks neatly for phones, where most of your visitors will be. Read each column top to bottom.

Thank you, Kjayy.

Thank you for taking the time to look through this. I put it together to show what your website could feel like: your photos front and centre, booking that feels simple, and little details that match your energy.

If anything here sparks an idea, I would love to hear what you think.
